A message from our President

Blake Roulette

Dear members,

I hope this finds everyone well, recovered from our shows, and that everyone did well and had fun with their dogs. Our next meeting is our annual meeting and our elections. I hope everyone has made plans to be there. The show was great and with everyone's help it was easy for everyone.

See everyone on Tuesday.

Blake

Thecla Tyner

Ch Titan's Dream Chaser CD, Brandy, owned by Thecla Tyner, and handled by Dana Smoak, took BOS Veteran in Sweepstakes at the Vizsla Club of the Carolinas Specialty on Thursday July 23 in Greenville under Judge Dr. Bob Smith. She went on to take 1st place in her Regular Veteran class 10 years and under 12 years under Mrs. Lee Canalizo. Later Brandy was entered in the Brood Bitch class with you produce; Jenny, Ch Ky's Cj Watch'n Me Wynn JH, owned by Thecla Tyner and Orion, Ch Ky's Brilliant Star of Orion, Co-owned by Linda Tedrow and Thecla Tyner, which she placed 1st in that class as well!

My 1st bred by keeper, owned and handled by Thecla Tyner, Rose, Intl Ch Ky's Golden Goal, had a litter of 7 Vizslas, 6 boys and 1 girl on June 17. Rose has been an excellent mom! I still have one of the boys that will be placed in the right home. An agility home would be nice for this pup. They are all climbers and love to go in and out of things. You should see them walking the puppy dog walk I made and going over the teeter too!

Bobbie Fairbanks

Azalea Hill's Encore, rough Collie 9-12 puppy, won WD 1 -pt in Skyline, VA and was RWD in Spartanburg and WD in Greenville. His brother, Azalea Hill's Landmark, qualified the 2 days entered in Rally.

Chairman's Report July 2009

-- AKC Archives' Online Digital Collections Growing --

New York, NY - The AKC Archives continues to distinguish itself as the only national repository dedicated to the sport of the purebred dog and covering 125 years of canine history and tradition. The Archives has turned hard copy historical data into digital collections providing the fancy and the public with access at www.akc.org.

The digital collections currently include the AKC Constitution and By-Laws from 1884-1947; nearly 3,000 pages of meeting minutes from 1884 to 1909; the evolution of Dog Show Rules from 1884 to 1931; and the AKC Art Collection. Artwork can be viewed either as thumbnails or a slide show.

Visit: http://www.akc.org/about/depts/archive/digital_collections.cfm to view and research the collections. Sharing documents, letters, and photos in this way enables the AKC Archives to provide better service and greater access than ever before.

Each new collection we receive must be processed before it's ready to share. Our newest, the John Ashbey photo collection, comes to us with more than 40 years of win shots and portraits as a result of the ubiquitous dog show photographer's move to a new studio. Other new Parent Club collections currently being processed include those from the Chihuahua Club of America, the Bedlington Club of America and rare books from the Poodle Club of America Foundation.

We encourage Parent Clubs to use the Archives as a permanent home for their collections. Any parent club with an upcoming anniversary show can request free copies of items from their collection if they are planning exhibits that would benefit from items that are currently housed in the Archives.

The Archives also develops its own collections, including the Oral Histories, which were begun with interviews of Bob and Jane Forsyth - dogdom's most famous couple. These interviews along with our photos are slated for digitization on the Web later this year.

Besides the digital collections we have other interactive pages, such as the 18-page digitized Historical Timeline for the 125th anniversary. As we celebrate this milestone we welcome your stories and anecdotes about your life with dogs and have provided an easy link for you to send us your submissions at: http://www.akc.org/about/depts/archive/125_years/history16.cfm

In addition to the Archives, the AKC Library continues to remain a valuable resource of more than 18,000 volumes for fanciers seeking historical and rare information about purebred dogs and the sport. While still open to the public, visits are now accommodated by appointment. We have established this new procedure to operate the library in a more efficient way considering the small number of monthly visitors.

If you wish to obtain more information about or to use the Archives please contact AKC Archivist, Norma Rosado-Blake at 212-696-8216 or nrb@akc.org. To make an appointment to visit the Library please contact Jim Crowley at 212-696-8234 or jxc@akc.org. We hope you will continue to use both of these AKC resources for your research, your club's history and your enjoyment.

Sincerely,

Ron Menaker
