A message from our President

Blake Roulette

Dear members,
 Hope this finds everyone well, enjoying your time showing and having fun with your dogs. As you read this RDO is in full swing. I hope that this day is as successful as the 2008 one was. Thanks to all the hard working volunteers, it is because of you that all our activities are a success. Next up will be our combined match with Clemson, make plans now to come out and support this activity as well.

The elected Board will meet to fill the standing committees. Anyone wanting to serve on any committee should let a Board member know which committee you wish to work on and in what position.

Our meeting will be the 15th at 7:30 See you there.

Blake

September Meeting

The Greenville County Sheriff's K9 Unit will be at our September meeting to provide a K9 demonstration. Please be sure to arrive early enough to get your snacks and be seated by 7:30 so we can start on time.

KENNEL CLUB
OUTSTANDING
SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

This year our club will have the opportunity to participate in selecting two of our members to receive an American Kennel Club Outstanding Sportsmanship Award. This award is to celebrate those individuals deserving of special recognition for having made a difference in the sport of purebred dogs, those who embody the AKC Code of Sportsmanship and have been an active and valued member of our Greenville Kennel Club.

Please submit your nominations and state your reasons you think these individuals are deserving of this prestigious honor.

Nominations must be received by October 13th at the following address:

LINDA AYERS TURNER KNORR
AKC DELEGATE
GREENVILLE KENNEL CLUB
7 W. AVONDALE DRIVE
GREENVILLE. SC 29609

Two deserving members will be celebrated at our annual Christmas party at the Poinsett club on Tuesday, December 15th.

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
 - Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
 - Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
 - The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
 - The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
 - The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
 - The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
 - The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
 - Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
 - Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
 - Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
 - Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
 - Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
 - Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
 - Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

Lemon Bar Recipe

Sharon Spiegel

Some members have asked for my lemon bars recipe, so here it is:

1 cup butter	2 cups granulated sugar
2 cups flour	2 tsp flour
½ cup powdered sugar	1 tsp baking powder
4 eggs, beaten	1 grated lemon rind
4 tbs lemon juice

Mix 1st 3 ingredients. Spread into 9x13 pan. Bake 18-20 minutes at 350°. Combine remaining ingredients, spread on top and bake an additional 20-25 minutes. Let cool and sprinkle with additional powdered sugar.

Beware of the Dog

Upon entering a small country store, a stranger noticed a sign saying DANGER! BEWARE OF DOG! posted on the glass door. Inside a harmless old hound dog was asleep on the floor besides the cash register.

He asked the store manager, "Is that the dog folks are supposed to beware of?"

"Yep, that's him," he replied.

The amused stranger inquired, "That certainly doesn't look like a dangerous dog to me. Why in the world would you post that sign?"

The owner responded, "Because, before I posted that sign, people kept tripping over him."
