November 2019

A Message from our President

Jeanette Stribling

Please mark your calendars for December 19 at 6:30 for our annual Christmas Party, to be held in the main ballroom of the Poinsett Club in downtown Greenville. The invitation, with all the pertinent information, is posted on this newsletter as well as being emailed and/or mailed to you personally. I hope you are planning to join us as this is also a celebration of GKC's 80th Anniversary!

Thank you to Ashleigh Boudreaux, Ken and Debbie Walker, and Todd and LouAnn McGahey for planning and organizing our match this month at Happy Dogs Training Facility in Wellford (owned by the McGaheys). I was able to attend the Obedience portion and thoroughly enjoyed trying my hand at stewarding. If you haven't had a chance to check out Happy Dogs, I advise doing it soon, as it is a fantastic facility.

I hope to see everyone at our meeting this month. Shelly Simons will be speaking on the AKC Reunite Trailer and Greenville County's Disaster Relief Planning. Also, our GKC Board Slate of Officers for 2020 will be announced again, and you will have the opportunity to nominate any other individuals from the floor.

Please join me in welcoming Gabrielle Miller to our GKC family. Gabrielle is member Sharon Smith's daughter and has a Labrador Retriever named Georgia.

I wish everyone a Thanksgiving full of family, friends, dogs and lots of turkey! Blessings to all.

Till next time,

Jeanette

Our puppy CH Southern Fire's Secret Storm was Best of Opposite Sex at AWPGA 2019 Specialty Sweepstakes.

Our WPG GCHS Southern Jes A Lit'l Hunting Sensation JH CGC passed the NAVHDA Invitational Test becoming the first Wirehaired Pointing Griffon in the history of the breed to attain both Silver Grand Championship status and pass the Invitational earning her the title of Versatile Champion.

Our 8 year old Granddaughter Olivia and her WPG Stormie qualified for the second year for the AKC NOHS in Orlando ranking 7th.

Beverly and Tony Childs and the StoneHouseHounds

The StoneHouseHounds have been having a great time in the ring this month. Rowdy ended October as Number 6 in breed points even though he has not been shown since April. Willett ended October in the Top 20 at Number 16 and she ended the 2019 AKC Owner Handled Series at Number Three Owner Handled PBGV!

Willett went to the Doswell, Virginia Hunt Country Cluster shows and had a successful outing in Owner Handled. On Thursday at the Charlottesville-Albemarle Kennel Club Ms. Jan N. Paulk awarded her an Owner Handled Group First and Judge Norbert Dee awarded an Owner Handled Reserve Best In Show. The OH BIS that day went to our very good friend with her PWD so it was a very special time for all of us. On Friday and Saturday at the Warrenton Kennel Club we had ribbons to celebrate. On Friday Judge Mr. David R. Miller awarded an OH Group Third. On Saturday Willi was awarded a Group Two by Judge Mr. Norbert Dee in what was the toughest owner handled group of hounds we have competed in.

Tony and I never get tired of hearing judges say wonderful things about our Willett and we continue to hear very nice things as she matures. Willett is Multiple Owner Handed Group Placing and a Reserve BISOH PBGV: CH Crepu Visage Aged To Perfection At StoneHouse PCJH CGCA CHCU TKN. Co-owed and bred by Sandy Bustin – Crepu Visage.

Pretty Flirt Girl had a date with her Dog Show Roadie Tony at the scent work trials in Atlanta. Flirt got her final qualifying sniff for her Advanced Container title (pending AKC approval) and Second Place on Saturday. Flirt also got her first qualifying sniff on an Advanced Buried title. Flirt always knows she is going to Scent Work when we put her fancy collar on her.
