A Message from our President

Jeanette Stribling

Happy St. Patrick's Day to everyone!

I hope you have made your reservation for GKC's "Spring Fling", in honor of Sharon Spiegel. The date is April 18, which is in place of our regular meeting and will be held again at the Poinsett Club. We will meet in the main ball room, which opens up to an outdoor patio area. The same four-piece bluegrass band will provide our music for the evening.

I sent an invitation (via email) to the membership requesting reservations with a deadline of April 10. I hope everyone will be able to attend this fun event which also includes presentation of our annual awards.

Sorry this is such a short message this month, but I am out of town and forgot to bring my GKC notebook!

Till next time,

Jeanette

Tina Bollinger

I attended my first GKC meeting in February!
Just a quick Brag on the club and its membership.

Thank you for your warm hospitality and kind welcome.
As a newbie to the sport as well as the club it, it was truly wonderful to walk in knowing no one and leave feeling welcomed and greeted by so many.
Very Brag worthy Club.

O'Malley McGee

I had spring break at Auburn so I got to sneak away and show my Dalmatians at the Raleigh shows and at the Central Carolina Dalmatian Specialty!

I showed my girl Camellia, GCHG Tateland's Sweet Camellia I'd Like to Steal Ya and we earned Select from the veterans class!

I was so happy to show my sweet girl again and she didn't miss a beat!

One of my bred-by boys from the Bruce x Billie litter showed out at the Raleigh shows!

At his first show Joey earned WD/BOW/BOS over specials on Saturday and BOS on Sunday!

So proud of Joey, 5Starr Malmason The One Where No One is Ready.
