A Message from our President

Jeanette Stribling

Hello everyone!

Things have been extremely busy at my house recently with our upcoming move. Our house went under contract in two days and our offer on the new place has been accepted! Fingers crossed for smooth closings!

It was good to have such a large turn-out at our Spring Fling last month. We all enjoyed great fellowship, great food, and great entertainment (with the exception of yours truly!). Also, our new title awards were a hit and looked fantastic (thanks Maureen). Special thanks to Sharon Smith once again for the beautiful table flowers and decorations.

I hope you have been tuned into the Westminster Dog Show. Best of luck to all but especially our members who are there competing. I hope to see lots and lots of ‘Brag’s’ in the newsletter!

Till next time,

Jeanette

4 out of 5 of the 4H girls were able to pass their Canine Good Citizens evaluation back in February, including my daughter, and I am a little late sharing this great news!

The 5th girl would have passed except her dog is still shy around new people, but she has done a great job training as well! I am proud of these girls and their dogs!!!!
