September 2023

A Message from our President

Ashliegh Boudreaux

The end of the year is quickly approaching and fall is almost upon us. With the seasonal transition, we also have a slight change in our membership leadership positions. Jeanette has done an absolutely amazing job serving us as President over the past 6 years, leaving me with huge shoes to fill. Moving forward as a club, my goal will be to continue Jeannette's efforts and to keep working to make GKC the best club there is.

I would like to remind everyone that our monthly membership meeting is the 3rd Tuesday of every month. We look forward to hearing from the club in ways to further our participation in the dog sports and fostering a positive influence in the greater Greenville community. Through active participation we come together as a club and community for the betterment, love and enrichment of our four legged friends.

The club has a lot of fun activities to look forward to. At the time of this newsletter publication we will be closing out the yearly obedience trials at the Happy Dogs facility. It is a wonderful event filled with excitement and celebration demonstrating our bond with our canine family. Furthermore, our board of directors are in the midst of planning our annual Christmas celebration. I look forward to seeing you all there as we celebrate our good fortunes for the year and provide recognition to our membership for their contributions to the community.

It has been said that the dog lives for the day, the hour, even the moment. Correspondingly, we should all strive to enjoy our time together with our pets and make the most of this wonderful fall weather.

Sincerely,

Ashliegh

GKC Rally Trial

Lou Ann McGahey

The GKC Rally Trial, held on August 19th and 20th at Happy Dogs Training Center was a tremendous success. The rings were busy all weekend with an impressive variety of breeds and 244 entries. Our judges, Jeannie Strong and Selina Edney, together with our hard-working volunteers kept everything running smoothly and on time.

Many thanks to Kris Harner, Sue Dwelly, and Kari Pillsbury for their work in the kitchen and all the volunteers that worked as stewards. We served a BBQ lunch to exhibitors both days and celebrated Sunday afternoon's Bells Rally Awards with ice cream.

BRTCA Top Twenty at Nationals!

So proud of my boy!

Jan Clifford

We had 4 great days at the Tarheel Labor Day Cluster in Raleigh, NC after the hurricane passed on Wednesday causing us to miss Thursday.

Tanssi was honored with BOB/BOBOH all 4 days as well as a Group 4 OH on Friday.

Thank you, Judges Anne Marie Taylor, Patricia Hess, James Taylor, Sioux Forsyth-Green, and Sylvia Barkey (G4OH) for finding my girl out of these beautiful line ups.

Tanssi also became a BRONZE Grand Champion that weekend. We are so very proud of her!

I was thrilled to have Full Circle Farm dogs win all with the exception of one select spot, this was veterans and puppy sweeps too.

Also I would love to add my deepest appreciation to our awesome kennel club and all those who patiently worked with me!!!!
